PCA Alberta supplementary membership agreement

Effective October 2023

Appointment of Product Care Association of Canada as “PRO” for Alberta Programs

1. This supplementary membership agreement is required of any Product Care Association (PCA) member registering for or continuing to participate in one or more of PCA’s Alberta Program(s) operated pursuant to the Extended Producer Responsibility Regulation, AR 194/2022 , or any other regulation (collectively the “AB EPR Regulations”) issued under the Alberta Environmental Protection and Enhancement Act, RSA 2000, c E-12 and, subject to the acceptance by PCA of the member’s application for registration for one of more of the PCA Alberta programs, forms part of the Membership Agreement between the member and PCA.
2. The member acknowledges that it is an obligated Producer, in accordance with the AB EPR Regulations for one or more products included in the PCA Alberta Programs and that the member is applying to PCA to participate as a member of PCA in the PCA Alberta Programs designated by the Producer in the PCA member registration system.
3. The member acknowledges having read the applicable AB EPR Regulations, and bylaws issued thereunder, and the requirement to register with, pay fees to, and submit information when required, to the Alberta Recycling Management Authority (ARMA) or, if provided for in the policies and procedures of PCA, to provide the information and/or fees to PCA so that PCA can submit the information and/or fees to ARMA.
4. The member agrees to observe and comply with all applicable policies of PCA relating to the applicable PCA Alberta programs and to membership in PCA.
5. The member agrees that it is appointing PCA as producer responsibility organization (“PRO”) to carry out the following responsibilities on behalf of the
